(LOCATION)

At approx 3:35pm, while traveling north on N. Main St., the Bellbrook school bus in front of me had to make an abrupt stop due to a vehicle in front of it's sudden left turn into the side street. I applied my brakes and immediately the car jerked highly and lurched forward but did not come to a complete stop. I pumped the brakes a few times but impacted the rear of the bus. Upon stopping, the engine was still revving as if the accelerator had stuck. It remained that way until I turned the engine off. There appears to be no damage to the bus, however there is significant damage to the front of my vehicle.
